 Second Row—Celestine Barnes, Robert Coogan, Frances Reed, Mable Allen, Alice Green, Keith Swearingen, Christine Neilson.
 Third Row—Jeanne Oakes, Gyneth Whisker, Beryl Coleman, June Enos, Tom Landes, Marcella McClane, Lois Ward.
 Fourth Row—Gloria Welsh, Mary Dorothy McLane, Catherine Mowbray, Dick Nelson, Lynn Velde, Ruth Spenser, Nina Beeney, Shirley Clausen.
 Fifth Row—Betty Jurgensen, Helen Blaisdell, Walter Buswell, Kenny Johnston, Charlotte Dunbar, Jane Owens, Ardis Talbert.
 Sixth Row—Ed Murphy, Bob Boyd, Bill Carroll, Herbert Bayers, Jimmie Ioder, Bernard Murphy, Frank Herder, Bill Code.

September, 1937 found us "Jolly Juniors" in our third year at B. H. S.

The following officers were elected at the class meeting under the supervision of our advisors, Miss Grantham and Mr. Garrison.

President, Kenny Johnston.

Secretary-Treasurer, Jane Owens.

Student Council Members, Tom Landes, Camilla Kelly.

Both boys and girls excelled in athletics, winning both divisions of the inter-class basketball tournament. Inside many of the black sweaters with big orange "B's" you will find Junior boys. The letters were earned in football, basketball and track.

Bill Code and Charlotte Dunbar were elected from our class to reign as King and Queen of the annual carnival. This makes the second year our candidates were the lucky winners.

Our members were also active in music, many playing in the band. Bob Boyd, Lois Ward, June Enos and Ardis Talbert participated in instrumental competition. In vocal solo contests Gloria Welsh and Bill Carroll represented B. H. S. Many Juniors were chosen to act in plays and the operetta and Junior's names were found in numbers on the honor roll at the end of each six weeks period.

The object of our selling candy, having market days and other little money-making schemes was the Junior-Senior banquet held in the gymnasium, May 7. The Maypole furnished the theme for decorations of the gymnasium and tables making of it a gala and glamorous event.

Next year marks the end of our high school careers, and we hope for continued success in order to be remembered at B. H. S. in years to come.

Sophomore Class

First Row—Miss Heetland, advisor, Isobel Burwell, Edna Bachman, Helen Alexander, Sylvia Rouse, Everett Moffitt.
 Second Row—Shirley Horack, Darlene Loudenburg, Frances Schneman, Evelyn Swearingen, Rosemary Breen, Ruth Wall, Margaret Hewitt.
 Third Row—Lester Lackie, Wilbur Fate, Donald Springer, Les Welsh, Clifford Renner, Frances Farley
 Sixth Row—Fern Tumbleson, Bernadine Bomleny, John McKean, Donald Renner, Forrest Champion, Veronica Murphy, Marion Ioder.

The Sophomores graduated from the "green freshie" class and took on a rather sophisticated air.

Officers elected at the first home meeting were:

President, Spencer Landes.

Vice President, Rosemary Breen.

Secretary-Treasurer, Isobel Burwell.

Student Council Members—Lorraine Wilt, John Howes.

Early in the fall Isobel Burwell was elected cheer leader. Rosemary Breen was chosen as the Sophomore carnival queen candidate. The class sold more tickets on the drawing than any other class.

The Jack Benny Christmas party proved to be one of the high spots in the social calendar. The class played host for the whole school.

Though various means were used to make money, the sophomores were the first ones to make two payments of ten dollars each on the scoreboard.

The athletic ability of the class is outstanding. The girls won second and the boys third in the interclass basketball tournament. Lettermen for football from the "sophs" included: Spencer Landes, Bob Real, Leslie Welsh, Clifford Miller, John McKean. Les Welsh and Bob Real earned basketball letters, too.

The dramatic ability of the sophomores is not to be overlooked. Fern Tumbleson and Clifford Miller were awarded membership in "Orange and Black Masquers." Several members of the class played in the big productions of the dramatic club.

Freshmen Class

Second Row—Sarah Louise Ault, Georgia Pearl Tucker, Evelyn Manning, Bob Perkins, Charles Bornsheuer, Tommy Mowbray, Dorothy Cinnamon, Eldora Thomas.

Seventh Row—Arlene Liggett, Dorothy Forbes, Glen Ioder, Dan McKean, Bill Harney, William Wright, Cleo Kopp, Leona Bomleny, Josephine Murphy.

At the first class meeting we elected our officers: President, Richard Herder; Vice President, Robert Hayden; Secretary-Treasurer, Gayle Ames. We chose Cecile Ames and Holton Rosenquist as Student Council members. Miss Bischoff and Mr. Wilcox are our class advisors. There were fifty-six freshmen.

At the carnival we all did our part to put it over big Cecile Ames and Dan McKean were candidates for queen and king. We gave the Juniors quite a run. They beat us by just a few votes.

Bill Barton was chosen for the cast of "Big Hearted Herbert."

The freshmen class was well represented in the Preliminary Declamatory contest. Mark Turner won first in oration and Holton Rosenquist won first in comedy. Josephine Murphy and Juanita Quinn also read in the contest.

A lot of our freshmen boys went out for sports such as football, basketball and track. We have some good freshmen athletes.

The freshmen girls had a good basketball team of which we were proud.

In March the freshmen sold class pins in order to help pay for the new score board.

Throughout the year the freshmen were well represented on the honor roll.

Student Council

First Row—Arlene Jackson, Sec.; Warren Hallock, Mr. Edmundson, Advisor; Eugene Piper, President; Camilla Kelly.

Second Row—Tom Landes, Lorraine Wilt, John Howes, Cecile Ames, Holton Rosenquist.

The Student Council is an organization under the supervision of the principal, Mr. Edmundson, which has charge of all extra-curricular activities of the high school. This group consists of eight members, a boy and girl elected from each class and the president who is elected from the student body.

One of the big jobs the Student Council has is the sponsoring of the homecoming and carnival. Every year the carnival has become bigger and better, which shows that the Student Council is becoming a more valuable and efficient organization to the school.

A few valuable assets to the school were purchased this year by the Student Council. One was a new electric score board for basketball games and the other an amplifier which can be used at track meets, plays, and other school functions.

Every year Bradford High School has a Big Brother and Sister day which gives the eighth grade pupils of the surrounding community an idea of what high school is like. This is made possible by the Student Council who personally invite all eighth grade graduates to attend school for one day. The Student Council feels that this is a very worthwhile project.

CHEER LEADERS

Any one that has a lot of pep, and would like to make good use of it, should try to be a cheer leader. Every year three people from the sophomore class is elected. They try out in front of the student body, and are chosen by the faculty. This person takes the place of the senior who graduates. There is always a sophomore, junior and senior cheer leader.

CHEER LEADERS

Camilla Kelly, Lois Gubbins, Isobel Burwell.

LIBRARIANS

First Row—Gloria Welch, Shirley Clausen, Joe McKean, Norma Ames, Catherine Forbes, Nina Beeney.

Second Row—Ruth Spenser, Virginia Reed, Miss Vanzant, Librarian.

Various books row upon row
For curious students who study to grow
Gifted in knowledge and oftentimes yearning
The library's the place for learning.

With this thought in mind, a new system of supervision has been used in the library this year. A teacher is present every period to assist the Student Librarian. However, the pupils still like to have a little fun on the side in case the teacher is detained or absent.

The library is always full to overflowing and why not? Over four thousand books of all shapes and descriptions would make an inviting place for anyone. There are recreation books, books for English, Science, History and various vocational subjects. Then of course, there are the dictionaries and encyclopedias. To this you add about thirty-five sets of English classics and you have a pretty nice library, don't you think?

Ask any student what is in the little wire basket at the right hand corner of the desk and he will immediately answer "Magazines." Yes, that's right. The history student wants a "Time"; the pleasure bent student wants the "Life" and in addition the magazine rack is filled with thirty-five others which come weekly, bi-weekly or monthly. These include Colliers, Popular Mechanics, Scholastic, Vogue, McCalls and many others.

Books are checked out for two weeks or for one day, just as the occasion and book called for demand. A penny-a-day fine is charged for overdue books.

Now of course, you're convinced that the library is a popular place around B. H. S.

PAPER STAFF

First Row—Dorothy Gubbins, typist, Ruth Spenser, Walter Buswell, Jane Owens, Norma Ames, Bim Tumbleson, Gloria Welsh.

Second Row—Miss Heetland, sponsor, Bill Carroll, Dorothy Forbes, Kenny Johnston, Catherine Forbes, Bob Real, Catherine Mowbray, Bob Boyd.

Third Row—Clifford Miller, Bill Barton, Bob Seeds, Rosemary Breen, Jerry Holland, Beryl Coleman, Lois Ward.

The paperstaff enlarged this year, and the one aim of the group was to have more and better news.

History again repeated itself in the changing of advisors, and Miss Heetland had charge of the B. H. S. Highlights.

A few more appointments were added to those which were previously made, and the reporters filled these positions throughout the term.

In November a Thanksgiving Party was held. It consisted of a covered dish dinner followed by a program. It was held in the gymnasium, and of course, everyone enjoyed himself.

Each Friday, the assignments of stories were made and posted, and the news items were submitted to Miss Heetland on Monday. After being copy-read, they were sent to press, and appeared in the Bradford Republican on Wednesday.

We succeeded in securing pins, and each member who received one was greatly pleased.

We are very grateful to Mr. Breen for his co-operation in giving us an opportunity to publish the B. H. S. Highlights in the Republican each week.

ENGLISH, SPEECH AND DRAMATICS

Although the name Orange and Black Maskers was used interchangeably with dramatic club, this year it took on a definite meaning. On January 19 eleven students were masked. The little black mask tied with orange ribbon was symbolic of outstanding work in production of dramatics. Any student belonging to the dramatic club may be masked upon completion of distinctive participation in speech and dramatic events. In time this group shall become the working nucleus of the dramatic club.

VERSE CHOIR

In old Greek times a chorus was used to give narrative to connect scenes of a play. This old custom of choric reading was revived in the speech classes this year. Both classes gave demonstration for the dramatic club. Finally, twelve girls with voices varying from high to low, just as in singing choirs, were selected for a verse choir. The choir gave its initial performance for the Civic League in January.

"The Show Must Go On" might be a good motto for the dramatic club of this year. Members of this large club have furnished entertainment for the club itself and the general public. Two long plays, "Big Hearted Herbert," and "Night of January 16th" played to capacity houses. "Little Prison," done by an all-girl cast was produced in the assembly for the carnival and "The Brink of Silence," with four boys in the cast, was used for the contest play. Several pep stunts, written and produced by the members of the club, added interest and zest to pep meetings throughout the year. In spite of illness which necessitated recasting twice during production the high school actors proved with success that the show must go on. It is the aim of the club to give opportunity for acting, play writing, student directing and stage-craft work. Cooperation of all members made the year successful.

FOODS CLASS

The delicious aroma of cooking food floats throughout the school during the second and third periods each morning. This year there are seventeen sophomores enrolled in the foods class. At the first of the year we studied food preservation and canned many vegetables and fruits for future use. A meat canning demonstration which we attended at Wyoming High School was also interesting and helpful.

"Buy your hot dogs here." It's not the town crier, but just home economics club girls at their foods stand at any of the many and varied athletic activities. And who does not remember the famous "Stand 'N Eat" at the '37 carnival? By the sound of things, the girls do not partake of anything but the eating part. But this is not the case. For aren't slim waist lines being emphasized this year?

The theme of the club program this season is "charm." The girls have had talks on how to dress; the care of the hair and all the other little things that go for a charming young lady.

Besides these extra curricular activities, the Home Economics Club have parties for the F. F. A. organization. The annual Christmas Tea for all the school girls and lady faculty members was given December 16, and a Mother's Day Tea was also quite an event.

Genevieve Hall was the delegate chosen to represent our club at the All State Home Economics Conference at Rockford last fall, and we are quite proud of being affiliated with the All State Organization, thereby receiving much aid.

It is customary for the club to take an educational trip each spring. Last year we went to Starved Rock. Many places of interest are under consideration for this year's trip.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club was organized under the direction of Miss Julia Bischoff.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: President, Hannah Capperrune; Treasurer, Lois Gubbins.

Their first appearance was at the all-school play "Big Hearted Herbert." Since then they have sung at all school plays and entertainments.

A preliminary contest was held for alto and soprano soloists to see who would enter the district contest. Lois Gubbins, alto; and Gloria Welsh, soprano, were the winners. These girls will enter the solo contest April 16 at which time twenty-five girls will compete in the chorus contests in Geneseo.

A Band Concert and Vocal Interlude was held Sunday, March 20 at the high school. The glee club and its soloists took part in this.

Rosemary Breen was the accompanist for the Girls' Glee Club and for the opera.

The Boys' Glee Club was organized this year under the direction of Miss Julia Bischoff. Twenty-seven boys were in the glee club.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected. President, Kenny Johnston; Treasurer, Lynn Velde; Monitors, Jim and Bob Perkins.

Their first appearance was at the play, "The Night of June 16". A quartet of boys represented the glee club at other community functions.

Warren Hallock, tenor, and Bill Carroll, baritone, entered the solo contest in Geneseo, April 16. These boys sang their contest pieces at the Band Concert and Vocal Interlude March 20. The glee club sang the pieces they use at the Glee Club contest in April.

On April 8 an operetta "Ask the Professor" was given with the girls' glee club.

Gertrude Swearingen was the accompanist for the club.

HOME MANAGEMENT CLASS

The third course in Home Economics is the home management course. Seven senior girls who took this advanced course included units in child care, clothing, etiquette, personality and home planning. The clothing unit proved the most popular one. Each girl made a spring outfit which was completed with carefully chosen accessories.

Other short units of interest were furniture refinishing, menu planning and practical nursing. Even though our class was small in number we feel that the quality was not lacking.

CARNIVAL QUEEN

Charlotte Dunbar

CARNIVAL KING

Bill Code

Ah! yes, the most gala and most glamorous event of all the year. The last is always the best, so let's start at the last and go backward.

The most exciting and the prettiest happening of the evening was the crowning of Charlotte Dunbar and Bill Code, Junior candidates for Queen and King.

The organizers of the carnival were Miss Heetland and Mr. Anderson. They are two of the newer faculty members and with the new evidently came new ideas. Because using an old phrase and meaning, "In a new way, the carnival was bigger and better than ever before."

Various other attractions were the bingo game, dance hall, beauty parlor, stand'n eat and many others which everyone is acquainted with.

During the course of the evening a play was given in the assembly under the direction of Miss Heetland. The drawing and floor show were appreciated by all the patrons, too.

All we can say is we try to make the good better and the better best.

ILLINOIS SPEECH LEAGUE

Bradford, as a member of the Illinois Speech League, entered contests in 1937 with success. In the sub-district contest at Wenona in 1937 Grace Foster was awarded first place in the dramatic division and Bim Tumbleson, second in the oratorical section. The one act play, "Pearls," took first place in the dramatic group.

Walter Buswell and Carol Landes took third place with extempore speaking and original oration.

In the county contest at Toulon later in the year Walter Buswell took second in extempore speaking and Ruth Spencer, Gloria Welsh and Grace Foster thirds in verse reading, humorous and dramatic reading.

First Row--June Enos, Bill Carroll, Ardis Talbert, Catherine Mowbray, Lois Gubbins, John Howes.

Third Row--Mr. Garrison, director, Bill Harney, Fern Tumbleson, Robert Hallock, Donald Scott.

Fourth Row--James Mitchell, Virginia Reed, Frank Herder, Catherine Forbes, Mark Turner, Clifford Miller, Dorothy Garrison.

The Bradford Township High School band has made rapid progress during the past year. Early last fall the band moved from the basement of the grade school to the high school building. Here there are adequate facilities for storing instruments, repairing horns, besides having a place for taking care of the band library. Every piece which the band library owns is filed according to title, author and character of the composition.

The band work has been made part of the regular school program. Credit is given for and which can be used towards graduation from high school. Credits earned will be accepted by the University of Illinois as college entrance requirement.

The band makes two major trips a year, one to the band festival held each year at Peoria, and the other is the annual band contest. This year the contest was held at Rock Island.

Soloists at the contest this year were: Bob Boyd, Lois Ward, Ardis Talbert, June Enos, Clifford Miller, Gertrude Swearingen, Rosemary Breen.

Industrial Education

EVERY DAY SCENE IN INDUSTRIAL MECHANICS DEPT.

The Bradford Township High School has one of the best Industrial shops in this part of the state. The new shop building was completed last fall. The freshmen take a general shop course in drawing, woodwork, electricity, and metal work. During the freshmen year of shop work the student is helped to find himself. The student is encouraged to do that work in which he shows the most ability.

Fundamental processes and correct procedures for doing things properly are taught in all shop courses. The ability to use tools and machines in this present machine age is a man's great asset.

A student may take three years of shop work if he shows ability in these lines.

Commercial Dept,

In our Commercial department we have courses in beginning typing and shorthand, advanced typing and shorthand, and bookkeeping under the direction of Mr. Anderson.

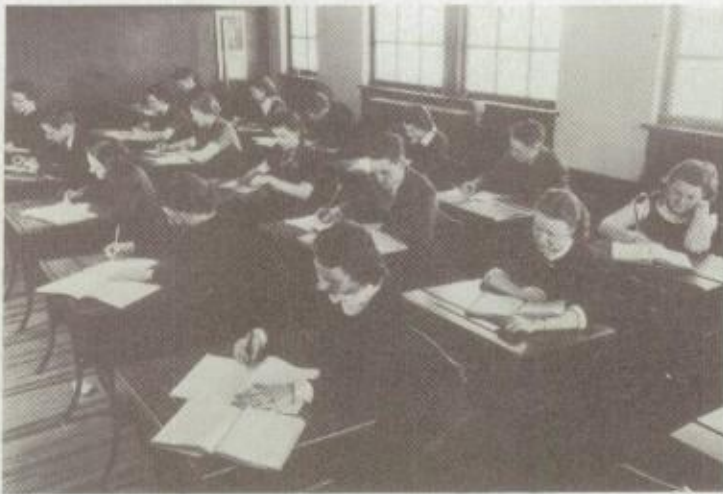

The Commercial department comes under the head of Vocational Education. This means training for some particular type of work. Our particular type is office or secretarial training.

These subjects do have some practical value, however. Shorthand may be used to an advantage to a person going to college, or for any particular kind of personal work you may have. It is hardly worthwhile to take it for this use only. Bookkeeping has its practical side also. It gives the individual an idea of the importance of keeping books or records even for your own individual useage.

Typing is rapidly gaining in popularity. It is a subject, I think, that should be required for everyone to take. It is so practical and has so many uses for every person. Most business correspondence is typed. The speed, attractiveness and legibility are three of its most important attributes.

Other than the regular classwork, the commercial department is concerned with the contests which are held during the spring. Last spring Catherine Forbes won the county typing contest.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Tried, tested and found trustworthy, the F. F. A. club remains the same substantial organization. It is a boys' club and is supervised by both national and state laws. The purposes of the club are many and varied. Namely: to develop and promote thrift, co-operation, citizenship, and leadership along agricultural lines. While this sounds very terse and hardworking, the boys manage to have a little enjoyment on the side. Basketball, husking, judging, public speaking and parties are a pleasant diversion from curricular activities. The Bradford Chapter plans to have 100% of its students in Agriculture in the F. F. A.

JUDGING TEAM

The sectional judging contest was held at Mendota last spring. This event comes about May first of each year. The boys who rank in the upper 50% go to the state judging contest at the University of Illinois. The fatstock, dairy, corn and grain teams won the honor of going to the state contest.

HUSKING CONTEST

The F. F. A. held their annual preliminary husking contest at Holland's this year. Jack Bogner, being the winner there was our representative at the sectional contest at LaMoille. The rules for the contest were the same as in preceding years—each contestant husking 50 minutes. Although Jack did not take first place he rated within the first four and husked the cleanest corn with the least gleanings of any contestant there.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The F. F. A. basketball team consists of about 15 boys who are not out for varsity basketball and are members of the F. F. A. The object is to encourage good sportsmanship and a better understanding among the boys, testing their ability to co-operate. As F. F. A. basketball is played in nearly all small schools in this locality the boys often run up against some fine competition.

COACH

The football squad think they really have something started now. We finished up with one tie, three wins and four losses last season and hope to get into that habit next year. Maybe our season wasn't a perfect one, but you certainly couldn't call it a failure. We didn't have a very large team, but the attitude and spirit of the team made up for that.

One thing a coach likes to see is improvement as the season goes on. We are sure Coach Wilcox was satisfied in that respect.

Next fall you will see a more experienced squad and a great deal is expected from them. Both Mr. Wilcox and the boys deserve a good season and here's hoping they get it. And by the way, the score of this year's season don't speak so badly for our team:

Bradford 0—Geneseo 0.
Bradford 6—Aledo 7.
Bradford 6—Wethersfield 7.
Bradford 0—Galva 19.
Bradford 20—Chillicothe 0.
Bradford 6—Toulon 12.
Bradford 33—Eureka 0.
Bradford 36—Wyoming 0.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM

With five experienced lettermen returning from the 1936-37 season Bradford's basketball season was more successful than last year's. The team lost several games but they never gave up without putting all they had in to the game. Throughout the season the team improved much and the only thing that was lacking was luck. Mr. Wilcox's team competed in two tournaments, the Toulon Invitational and the Regional but was unsuccessful in both. The team will lose three players by graduation but Mr. Wilcox has many promising underclassmen to fill their places and with a determination to win the team for 1938-1939 should go places.

The second team under the supervision of Mr. Wilcox and Mr. Anderson won ten games and lost five. If everything turns out as we think it should the season next year should be a more fruitful one.

The freshmen team played several games and gained valuable experience that will help them much in the coming years.

Last year Bradford attended seven track meets during the season, with only one letterman on the team, Bradford gave a good account of itself in each meet. The meet known as the Bradford Relays was sponsored by the Bradford High School Athletic Department. This meet is the second largest in the state and was attended by thirty-six schools with 615 athletes who took part in this meet. Some of the best were Anders, state champion dash man, and Wright of East Moline, state discus champion. Boys from Bradford competing in this meet were: Bell, Baylor, Piper, Hickey, Johnston, Code, Bayer and Miller. Class B. was won by Toulon. This meet is drawing a large attraction again this year.

Among the finest of the annual Stark County Track meet was Bell of Bradford, who set a record of 24.4 in the low hurdle event.

The schedule of the track meets were as follows in which most of the boys mentioned took part:

Geneseo Relays.

Blackhawk Conference Meet.

District Meet.

Stark County Meet.

Wyoming-Bradford Dual Meet.

All the boys will be returning for this following season as even a better year is anticipated.

 Second row—Tom Landes, Bob Boyd, Herbert Bayers, Bernard Murphy, Dick Nelson, Mr. Garrison, advisor.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

Fourteen freshmen boys, this year, received numerals for their first year of football in high school. These boys were out for practice every night the last period and after school. This season they learned the fundamental things of football, but next year they will learn more complicated things for they will be playing first and second team games. These boys have shown plenty of spirit this first season and we can count on them to carry on Bradford High School's football fame.

Noon Hour Activities in the Gym.

Above is a picture of part of the physical education program as it is carried on in our school—with the concentrated educational program carried on in our school it is necessary for the students to take part in some form of recreation and exercise. Bradford students are afforded this opportunity through ping pong, tennis, softball, basketball, shuffle board, checkers, track, field hockey and football.

GOOD WILL can not be built from a blue print. It grows—matured by diligence, fostered by skill and sustained by honesty.
